Why do I need a Will?

Preparing a Will is the best way to ensure that once you have passed away your family's needs are met according to your wishes. Aside from distributing your wealth and assets to family members, a Will can also include a range of other issues:

- Providing for children from a previous relationship
- Providing for children with special needs
- Guardianship of your children
- Distributing assets that do not form part of your estate (such as family trusts)
- Donations to charities.

WARNING!

You should make a Will even if you think you have little to leave. If you do not make a legal Will your estate will be distributed in accordance with the Succession Act and additional costs may be incurred to your estate.

Before you make your Will, you must decide...

- Who to appoint as your Executor
- Who will receive your assets when you die
- How and when your assets will be distributed

You will need to have the above information available at the time of making your Will. An effective Will should take into account your personal and financial circumstances and also deal with non-estate assets such as superannuation death benefits.

Senior's Card Discount

We offer a pensioner discount of 10% for the preparation of Wills and Enduring Powers of Attorney. To find out more about Wills please contact Matthew Love Family

ATTENTION!

Make sure your Will stays up-to-date.

Your Will should always reflect your current circumstances and intentions. The following factors should be used as a prompt to determine when your Will may need updating:-

- Marriage, separation or divorce, or entering into a new relationship
- Birth or death of children, grandchildren or other close relatives
- Significant changes to the value of your assets
- Substantial changes to the manner in which you own assets, including the formation of a family trust or the establishment of a Self Managed Superannuation Fund
- If you enter into a new business or change your existing business structure
- Changes in your residency status
- Retirement from full-time employment

Hint: In the last few years there have been significant changes to the Taxation, Superannuation and Social Security Laws impacting upon Wills and deceased estates. These changes emphasize the importance of regularly reviewing your Will to ensure it continues to comply with your wishes.
